

Recent Home news

Continuing its ethnic cleansing plans the Eritrean regime has prevented kunama women from obtaining medical care during child birth. According to our sources from inside a kunama woman named Eden Jakomino Addas died of excessive bleeding during child birth in Barentu hospital on 09-01-2012. The midwife on duty that was instructed by the regime to deny medical care for the kunama nationality refused to provide the necessary medical treatment and had intentionally abandoned the victim. It is widely known that the nurses and doctors in Barentu hospital are instructed by the regime to deny medical treatment for patients just because they are from the kunama nationality.

A car accident had wounded and killed 17 people in Kamburta moroja area on 18/01/2012. The car was heading to Tuka market place filled with people.

The Shabiya regime that considers the kunama land as a market commodity is leasing it to private investors that are engaged in gold sifting. The investors converted many villages into mining pits making them uninhabitable. The regime ignoring complaints of the people allowed the investors to dig in all the villages around Kosolda and Haykota forcing residents to vacate their homes.

Despite its evil acts of discrimination the regime through its thugs like Franko Kobaba and Luiji Husien is forcing the kunama people to reconcile differences. These individuals are campaigning in all kunama villages to gain their consent in order to crash the kunama resistance organization; the Democratic Movement for the Liberation of Eritrean Kunama DMLEK. In a meeting conducted in the village of Dakkamare the people profusely protested the idea of reconciliation saying they did nothing wrong. The people demanded the regime to acknowledge the wrong doings and punish its soldiers that are involved in kidnapping, extortion, theft and arbitrary detention of the elderly and children. The people also said that the soldiers of the regime continued to steal property and accuse people of theft unjustly forcing them to pay large amount of money as punishment for their own mistakes. It is known that the brigade 53 has armed a gang of stooges in order to rob the kunama rich men in order to share the benefits.

The despotic regime has carried out huge round up in villages of Shamboko sub zone and Alala for conscription. The regime abducted large number; 5 trucks full of kunama youth by force and took them to Qualay military training facility on 07/01/2012. In addition to that the regime is also abducting people from the river banks of Sona (the middle course of Gash River) in its endeavors of land grabbing. The people said that the intention of the regime is to evacuate people of the Alibibi valley, Kolloti, Aggatit, Morkina Sanga, Kašarba and other fertile lands.